Happy Holidays from Little Salmon Carmacks First Nation

Happy Holidays! We have had a tough year this year between a global pandemic and the loss of many respected and loved Citizens, Community Members and Yukoners. We appreciate all the patience and understanding when we had to close the office down due to Covid-19. Mussi Cho for all the hard work our staff have put in this year. Mussi Cho to Finance for being at work keeping things running while the office was closed. Mussi Cho to Capital for all their hard work clearing the streets, keeping the building warm and keeping maintenance up on our homes.

STATUS CARDS PAST THE RENEWAL DATE

Information for persons registered under the Indian Act about status card validity.

Since April 2020, Indigenous Services Canada (ISC) has extended the validity date of status cards and Temporary Confirmation of Registration Documents due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This extension will end on May 1, 2022.

If your status card is past its renewal date, you should renew it now.

SECURE CERTIFICATE OF INDIAN STATUS (SCIS)

- » Submit a complete application by February 28, 2022 to allow for processing time to avoid delays.
- » To find out how to renew the SCIS, visit canada.ca/indian-status-card or contact the regional office nearest you or your First Nation office.
- » You can now take your own photo when applying for the SCIS using the SCIS Photo App.

CERTIFICATE OF INDIAN STATUS (CIS)

- » Some First Nation offices issue the CIS.
- » To find out if your First Nation issues the CIS and how to renew the CIS, contact your First Nation office.

TEMPORARY CONFIRMATION OF REGISTRATION DOCUMENT (TCRD)

- » You can ask for a Temporary Confirmation of Registration Document if you need proof of registration while waiting for your new card.
- » To get a TCRD by mail, contact Indigenous Services Canada at 1-800-567-9604 from Monday to Friday from 9 am to 6 pm Eastern time.
- » To get a TCRD in person, contact the regional office nearest you.

INDIAN STATUS DOES NOT EXPIRE.

Your registration number confirms your status and can be used to access certain services and programs.

For a list of regional offices, visit canada.ca/indian-status.
